Epilogue...

Rachel
 So a swell gal in my section. Best of Luck in the future at H. H. S. (you'll need it next year with Latin) we really had some fun didn't we.
 I hope you will achieve what you want a huge friend,

Hempfield...

FOREWARD

And this is Hempfield . . .

The smell of grass through a classroom window,
The sound of the spring mower . . .
The trump of junior-sized elephants,
Trumpeting their way to the lunch line . . .
The anxious expectation of all
When the sky foretells "snow" . . .
The beauty of the red and candle Pageantry
As the Hempfield Singers descend the aisle . . .
The sighs as the curtain finally descends,
All that practice for one night . . .
The yellow hall slips clutched so tightly
In busy hands on their hurried trips . . .
The study-less halls where one or two Occasionally do study . . .
The glow inside, from a difficult task
Completed well and merited . . .
The ebullient life emitting from all,
Buoyed by a Pep Meeting . . .
The Christmas-decorated doors
Doing their best to win the ice-cream party . . .
The flurry to read the "Snooper"
When the Flash "hits the stands" . . .
The senior-fun of signing "Good Luck", "Good Luck"
In Epilogues time and time again . . .
The announcements which BOOM or whisper
Depending on the mood of machine . . .
The box passed by the Student Council representatives
For missions or orphans . . .
The joy in leaving after a year and summer vacation,
The sorrow in leaving forever . . .
On and on and on and on and on . . .

And this is Hempfield . . .

Dedication

... because - as teacher and friend - you have inspired, guided, understood us ... because, through your personal magnanimity and professional excellence, you have become an inseparable part of our beloved Hempfield ... and thus, because Hempfield will always mean the more to us for your having been identified with it ... we inscribe with your name this record of our days at Hempfield in 1961, as a lasting mark of our deep respect and affection for you -

The Epilogue wishes to sincerely thank Mrs. Grimm for her outstanding contribution in the field of education. Since 1943, when she first came to Hempfield Union School District, Mrs. Grimm has taught English. Always, she has had a special interest in each of her students and has tried to help them in every way possible. There is no doubt that Hempfield is losing a valuable asset in Mrs. Grimm. Certainly, Hempfield High wishes her good luck in the future.

DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SENIOR

FRIDAY—

6:45 AM

BRUSHING TEETH

...for that Pepsodent smile during her busy day.

6:59 AM

BREAKFAST

...one last bite before the dash to school for that EARLY morning dance rehearsal.

Of all the brim-filled years of public school life, the senior year is unanimously (with the exception, perhaps, of a few disgruntled juniors) the fullest and the busiest. Culminating eleven years of experience in formal education, the senior year finds its participants in hectic, hurried, and usually happy activity. One of the best examples of a well-adjusted girl who has advantageously acclimated herself to the senior swirl is Susan Hackman. Busier than any beavers we've ever met, Susie has a toe or finger in almost every phase of Hempfield, from cheerleading to orchestra. Thus, we have selected Susie as particularly exemplary for our attempt to portray a "senior of '61". So come with us now as morning sounds in Landisville. It's a typical Senior's Typical Day in Hempfield High School, U. S. A!

7:00 AM

DANCE BAND

...that big bass makes a good leaning post for a still sleepy Susie.

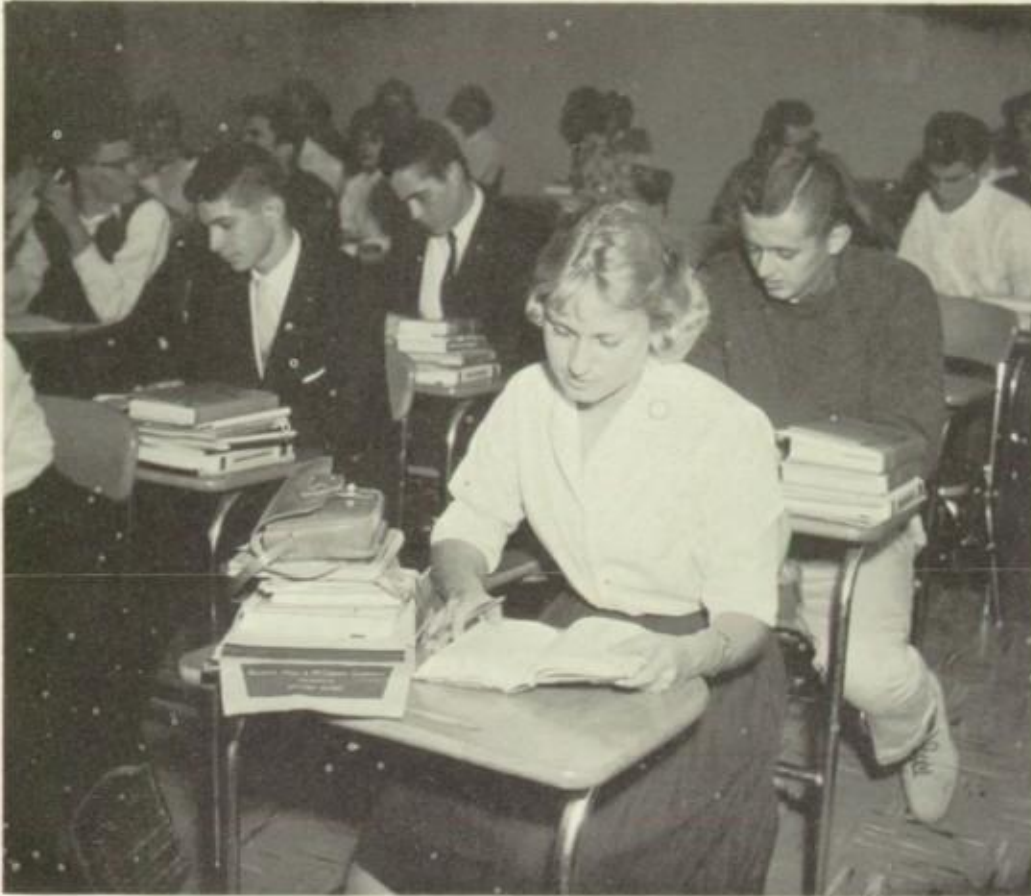

8:40 AM

HEMPFIELD SINGERS

...after devotional period, it's off to Hempfield Singers for a few songs.

DAY IN THE LIFE OF A SENIOR

FRIDAY—

10:30 AM

CLASS

...with all her extra-curricular activities, she still finds time to study and maintain her high A average.

12:30 PM

LUNCH

...then there's a hurried lunch before the busy afternoon begins.

SATURDAY—

2:30 PM

FOOTBALL GAME

...with a Rahl, Rahl, Siss-Boom-Bahl, Susie cheers the Black Knights on.

...to finish off a busy week of school and activities is a Saturday night date with a dreamy guy.

JUNIOR PLAY

If you get near it, I'll kill you!

"GOING STEADY"

"Going Steady" has its advantages, but as the Junior Play proved, it also has its difficulties.

After Scotty, an over-confident but extremely likeable fellow ends his steady arrangement with Helene, a self-centered but charming miss, he turns his attentions to Sally Burnaby, the daughter of a psychology professor at Northern University. Before long, Scotty gives Sally his Sports Club Pin and a promise that she will receive his fraternity pin in the fall. Much to Sally's dismay, this new arrangement is not looked on favorably by her sister Jean or by her parents.

When Sally's best friend, Millie Davis, elopes with Joe Ballard, her steady, Sally and Scotty begin to talk of marriage. Although they both planned to enroll at Northern U. in the fall, they now decide to keep their summer jobs and get married the following December. Mr. and Mrs. Burnaby forbid this; therefore, the steadies feel that the only thing for them to do is to elope. However, on the chosen evening, Mr. Burnaby and one of his students, Bob Carlson, decide to conduct a psychology experiment at the Burnaby home. Several of Sally's friends — Kate, Della, Helene, Owen, and Bill — are invited to take part in the experiment.

Oh . . . my ankle!

The fall came a lot sooner than I expected.

First Row: Carol Anderson, Bobbie Marshall, Rita Coulson, Judy Grube, Bob Aument, Rosie Harnly, Robbie Reeder, Cara Saylor, Bob Denlinger.

Second Row: Jerry Gish, Mrs. Rodman, Buddy Schroll, Mike Lynch, Joe Snyder, Norma Siegler, John Holtzapple, Steve Harper, Jim McDonald, Barbara Wiley (Promptress)

Let's go steady.

As this evening confusion fills the air: Bill and Owen attack the dean of Northern U. as a prowler; Betsy and Ricky, Sally's younger sister and brother, fire a "moon rocket" complete with an astronaut mouse; and Fenley, the policeman, comes to see Mr. Burnaby about Ricky's scientific experiments. After these chaotic conditions keep Sally and Scotty from eloping, they reconsider their plans and decide that it would be better if they did not continue to go steady.

Under the direction of Mrs. Rodman, "Going Steady," a delightful comedy, proved to be a great success for the Junior Class.

Oh, Millie, a diamond!

SENIOR PLAY

All right girls, it's beddy-by time; turn off all the lights because it's after ten o'clock and we must save the electricity.

Mrs. Wilkins, your bench is alive with termites.

It's big red mouse!

Mrs. Wilkins, a stern-looking woman with a sort of "nasal drip" runs a boarding house in Greenwich Village, New York, for would-be actresses. Among the starlets who descend the Wilkins' staircase are Mimi Van Dijk, a type of actress whose talents are measured by a measuring tape; Melly Compton, a baggy little sausage who tries her luck in the choral groups; Vicky Monroe, a dancing instructress who has a keen way of appealing to a person's monetary sympathies; Tina Grey, a photographer in an exclusive nightclub; and Marcille Benedict, a child of the drama. The only sensible girl in the entire group of boarders is Susan Page, who works as a secretary for the Christopher Daniels, a young playwright.

During her early morning chores, Mrs. Wilkins and her unpredictable housemaid, Betsy Selig, are visited by Mrs. Essenprice, a distinguished mother who is looking for a room to rent for her publicity mad daughter, Cindy Cellar. After a terrifying exhortation from Eddie Knapp, Betsy Selig's boyfriend, Mrs. Essenprice is witness to a bitter fight between the landlady and Tina Grey and has to withstand the fainting spells of Marcille Benedict. A wild rustle of people followed by a series of flashbulb lights brings into the spotlight Cindy Cellar surrounded by Peter Webster, Tom, Betty, and Sam — all New York newspaper reporters — who begin to question her about the "fake" money that she has been handing out on Broadway.

Having been warned ahead of time by Mrs. Essenprice, Mrs. Wilkins knew there soon would be trouble brewing, but she did not realize the kind that Cindy was capable of starting.

Bored with small town life, Cindy concocts a scheme that she hopes will put her name in the headlines of every newspaper in the country. Unable to acquire a tamed snake belonging to one of her friends, she rents a snake from the Wonderland Zoo in New Jersey. Her plan is to place this snake in her room and pretend that the animal has bitten her; however, the plan backfires, and Cindy receives such a tremendous scare that she vows never again to do anything for publicity.

The Senior Class wishes to thank Miss Forney for the tireless effort that she put forth to make this production a success.

May the 1961 Epilogue with its facts, faces, and events, help each graduate to carry a little of Hempfield with him and in later years to bring back the memory of the thrilling year that we won the basketball county championship, that Mrs. Wilkins flipped her wig at the Senior Play, that Hempfield classes were serenaded by the clink-clanks of busy hammers at work on the new addition, and so on throughout the book.

There have been many Epilogues since 1948 and many hard working staffs, each profiting from the one before and carrying the Epilogue to a higher prestige. We the editors hope we have done our part to further and improve the Epilogue and would like to thank our staffs, who were the sole source for all improvement, new ideas, and hard work.

To next year's editor and staffs, we would like to extend wishes of good luck, and we'll be looking for a newer and better yearbook in the Epilogue for 1962.

In its function as a school newspaper, the FLASH serves a two-fold purpose, that of encouraging individual interest and development in journalism and that of keeping the student body informed of school activities. Published eight times a year by a student staff exclusively, the FLASH is primarily financed through ads, the annual Halloween parties, the Junior High Party in late winter, and a "half-interest" in the refreshment stand at athletic events.

The December issue of the FLASH was based on the T.B. association-inspired topics, "Should Teenagers Smoke?", "How Our School Fights T.B.", and "Careers in Health." The staff, having thoroughly investigated these fields through feature, news, sports, and editorial articles, the issue won first place in the Lancaster County Tuberculosis Society contest, subsequently taking both state and national honors. In addition, the paper received a special award of recognition for outstanding articles on smoking.

Another interesting facet of the 1960 FLASH term was participation in the pre-election "Nixon Day" held in Lancaster. The representatives from the county high school and college newspapers were given official cards, transportation, and observation points.

This year's FLASH staff, under the unique leadership of Cara Saylor, is to be congratulated for the high quality of work it accomplished.

 Dick Lowell, Ruth Ann Charles, Linda Young, Susie Hackman.

Functioning as the government of the school, the Student Council is the channel through which the students and faculty may work together toward increasing the effectiveness of the school system. Under the leadership of Linda Young, the Council in many ways endeavored during the past year to fulfill this goal. As usual, the Council sponsored two foreign orphans, organized the Hall Monitors Club, held a door decoration contest at Christmas, and collected money for worthwhile organizations — such as, the Water Street Mission and Heart Haven. However, the continuation of these projects was by no means the extent of the Council's activities during the year; various new projects were undertaken. The Council's work was centered in two main fields this year — that of promoting school spirit and also that of preparing the school for the major task of transferring to the new wing in the fall. In connection with these projects, the Council provided tags and posters for the athletic events and organized a new Varsity Club. Also a Junior High Student Council, which will become active in the new school year, was set up. In these activities and others that have been undertaken, the Council has strived to become a greater influential force in our school.

The FHA is an organization which "builds for a better tomorrow." It provides its members with opportunities to develop an appreciation of the true value of homemaking.

Throughout the year, the club undertakes various money-making projects. For example, this year they sold wash cloth rabbits at Easter time and oranges with peppermint candy straws at baseball games.

As a special project, this year's FHA'ers entered a liquid embroidery exhibit at the State Farm Show. Their efforts brought them a thirty-five dollar prize. During FHA Week (April 9-15) the girls presented their prize-winning exhibit on radio and television.

The FHA girls, led by Ruth Ann Forry, are certainly to be praised for their outstanding achievements during this year.

The primary purpose of the FNA is that of imparting to girls who plan to make nursing their career a knowledge of what their future responsibilities will consist.

Bringing in speakers experienced in a particular phase of nursing, taking field trips to hospitals that have their own nurses' school (in April of this year the girls journeyed to Reading Hospital), and also sending the Senior members to St. Joseph's to work as volunteer nurses' aides are several ways by which the club strives to achieve its purpose.

The FNA is also interested in being of service to its own community. For that reason, this year's group, functioning under the capable leadership of president Judy Grube, took an active part in the local cancer drive.

Under the direction of Mr. George Broske, club advisor, and Marilyn Diller, club president, the Ethel Steinkompf Chapter of Future Teachers of America has been very active this year. The club, which has a growing membership of thirty-eight students from grades ten through twelve, has visited Elizabethtown College, Lebanon Valley College, and Millersville State College as part of a program planned to stimulate interest in area colleges and to obtain valuable information concerning college requirements and campus life. In addition, Mr. Lowry Thomas, a senior at Elizabethtown College, visited the club and spoke to the group on the topic, "What to Expect While Student-Teaching."

Because April is Teacher Appreciation Month, the FTA'er's planned a tea for the faculty (student teachers are included) and presented an apple to each of them as a way of saying, "Thank you for the splendid job you have done at Hempfield."

Considerable credit should be given to Marilyn Diller for the excellent job she did this year. Not only was she president of the FTA club at Hempfield, but also was president of the Pennsylvania Southern District FTA and Vice President of the State FTA. (Because of Marilyn's position as president of the Southern District FTA, the Hempfield FTA played host to the Southern District Convention held at Millersville State College and was responsible for editing the district newsletter and for compiling the district scrapbook for the state convention.) Naturally, the entire school is proud of Marilyn for the outstanding job she has done in stimulating interest in future teaching.

Absent: Jay Ernst.

The Key Club, a service organization sponsored by the Lancaster Kiwanis Club, consists of forty boys selected from grades ten through twelve. Throughout the year the club participates in numerous activities within the school. This year's Key Club, under the active leadership of Jay Ernst, continued to provide a sports bulletin board, to promote the sale of operetta tickets, to provide a hat and coat check service at all school plays and musical programs, to co-sponsor at Christmas the drive for the needy, to sell football programs, to sponsor the Thanksgiving Dance, and to present at commencement an award to the outstanding senior wrestler.

Each year there are several conventions in which the Key Club participates. This year delegations were sent to local, division, and state conventions held in Reading, Pennsylvania.

The members of the Key Club deserve all of our congratulations for their numerous services that have contributed to the well-being of the entire student body.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

The Library Assistants is an association of approximately seventy girls who have volunteered to aid Miss Carrigan in performing the numerous duties that keep the library in operation. Their main duties include collating, charging, and discharging books.

This organization does not function as another club, for the only opportunity that the girls have to gather together in a definite group is at the annual Library Club Conference held at Millersville State College. This year the theme was "Adventures in Understanding." The main speaker, an exchange student from the Belgian Congo, gave the girls an idea of the educational system on the African continent.

During its fourth year at Hempfield, Mu Alpha Theta, National High School and Junior College Mathematics Club, continued to provide interesting, informative programs which introduced to its members some new fields and concepts of the mother of sciences — mathematics. These programs were presented by various club members under the excellent supervision of the president, Carol Anderson, and the faculty advisor, Mrs. Lavinia Doland.

Twenty-two new members were accepted into the club on December 5, 1960. At that ceremony, Dr. Bernard Jacobson of the Franklin and Marshall mathematics department spoke on the topic, "One Equation in Two Unknowns."

Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Aberdeen, Maryland was the scene of the May meeting. At that time the members of the club viewed huge electric computers, a wind tunnel, a firing range, and a weapons museum.

Tea After N.H.S. Induction

The National Honor Society is a nation-wide organization designed to promote qualities of Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service in high school students. Election to this organization is one of the highest honors a student can receive throughout his high school career. To be eligible for membership, a student must maintain a minimum scholastic average of eighty-five per cent and must display to some degree each of the four attributes mentioned above. No more than fifteen per cent of any class may be elected to membership.

This year the Hempfield (Alpha) Chapter of the Honor Society conducted a student tutoring service and sold school note paper as its major projects. The annual induction service, always the high point of the year's activities, was held on March seventh, with the Reverend Nathaniel P. Lauriat, minister of the Unitarian Church of Our Father, Lancaster, as guest speaker. At that time seven seniors and eight juniors were ushered into the Society.

CHRISTMAS DANCE

Sallie Robertson — Queen
Dave Kauffman — King

Jane Reeder — Princess
Park Schimp — Prince

During the 1959 Christmas season, the Junior Class presented a "Snow Ball" for the senior high school students. For this event, the gymnasium was turned into an exquisite dance floor. At the entrance the lights on a carefully decorated Christmas tree blinked a cheerful and warm "hello." High above the festivities a beautiful crystal ball sent out dazzling rays of light constantly. Directly below, Jolly Old St. Nick had left his sleigh filled with piles and piles of presents. It seems that St. Nick also brought with him some of his helpers, for two small boys, Kenny Moore and Steve Coulson, in elves outfits served the delicious refreshments. In the midst of all this beauty, the dancers whirled around the dance floor in time with the delightful music of the Bert Gardner Combo.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Toby Yinger — Queen
Tom McMahan — King

Susie Hackman — Princess
Dick Lowell — Prince

The Junior Class chose "Fantasy of the Deep" as its theme for the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom. In keeping with this theme, they decorated the gymnasium with an incalculable number of fish caught in the trap of fishermen's nets. Resting calmly on the "ocean" floor was an old Spanish galleon. The whole scene was viewed by a beautiful, golden-haired mermaid. Delightful music was supplied for the dancers by Tiny Wright and his orchestra.

Following these festivities, the Landisville Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsored several hours of fun at the Mount Joy Legion. Included on the program were the music of the Bert Gardner Combo and the hypnotic abilities of Dr. Shenk.

The Hempfield Singers, under the excellent direction of Mr. Richard Kline, began another successful season by appearing in various local churches — such as, the East Petersburg Church of the Brethren and the Landisville Church of God. As a climax to its Christmas season, the chorus presented its annual Christmas concert. Included were such numbers as "Gloria in Excelsis," "The Holly and the Ivy," and "Last in the Night."

The operetta, "Bells Are Ringing," was presented on April 28 and 29. As in previous years, it was received enthusiastically by the audience.

Again at Baccalaureate and Commencement, the chorus sang a few selections, including "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Nine outstanding members were selected to attend District Chorus. They are as follows: Arlene Hartenstine, Sandra Koehler, Doris Lehman, Sandra Joost, Linda Young, Mary Frances Eshleman, O'Rean Fiedler, Steve Barr, and Roy Keagy. From these nine, six were selected to participate in Regional Chorus. The six are Arlene Hartenstine, Sandra Koehler, Doris Lehman, Linda Young, Mary Frances Eshleman, and Steve Barr.

OPERETTA

"BELLS ARE RINGING"

This year the delightful musical comedy "Bells Are Ringing" came to Hempfield. The story is centered around Ella Peterson and her adventures as an operator at Susanswerphone, a telephone answering service. Ella's weakness is that she worries continually about the personal problems of each of her clients. When she overhears that Dr. Kitchell, the dentist, has written some songs, she arranges for him to have them auditioned. Likewise, Ella takes seriously her duties to Jeoffrey Moss, an eligible bachelor. Using a different voice (she has one for each customer), she convinces Jeoffrey that he must write his play. Her feelings toward him are announced when she sings that she's "In Love with a Man: Plaza O, double four, double three".

Everything runs smoothly at the answering service until Sandor establishes a bookie ring in which he uses the names of classical records as a device for his clients to place money on the horses. He keeps secret his intentions for "A Simple Little System". At this time Sue Peterson, the proprietress of Susanswerphone, realizes that she is in love with Sandor, who absconds with all her money. This theft brings Inspector Barnes into the case. A rather stupid detective, Barnes causes much hilarity in his investigation.

In the meantime Ella meets Jeoffrey. Having been saved from failure by her, he sings that she came into his life "Just In Time."

With Frannie Eshleman and Steve Harper as the talented stars, "Bells Are Ringing", which was directed by Richard Kline, Mary Lee Forney, and Margaret Simmons, will always be remembered as one of Hempfield's outstanding productions.

First Row: Bettina Haag, Marlene Singer, Carolyn Gingrich, Marie Toews, Barbara Gamber, Susan Hollinger, Judy Nissley, Jeannette Nissley.

Second Row: Lois Snyder, Judy Hauer, Donna Zell, Patsy Hartenstine, Sara Jane Roland, Carol Dussinger, Nancy Boose, Carolyn Boothe, Clo Cassat.

Third Row: Joyce Seachrist, Linda Gerlach, Carol Eshleman, Pat Miller, Jancie Enders, Dennis Bentzel, Bill Teats, Dick Manning, Gordon Groff, Ronnie Denlinger, Donald Ballinger.

This year the band was under the competent direction of Mr. Richard Jones and Miss Helen Sauder, for Mr. Getz had taken his sabbatical leave to obtain his doctorate.

In the fall the band was found on the football field diligently rehearsing its football shows. The band members and the majorettes, headed by Diane Fitzgerald, and Mr. Jones were acclaimed by many for the excellent job they did both in presenting entertaining half-time shows and also in boosting the crowd's spirit. Some of the personalities presented in the shows included Ferdinand the Bull, Senator Snort, Senor Pancho Alfredo Miguel Gonzales Weaver, and six can-can girls straight from Paris. The band itself presented many intricate drills and precision marches. Carol Anderson, the band's announcer at the games, deserves special credit for the fine job that she did.

Can-can girls from Paris: Bobbie Marshall, Juulia Wieland, Robbie Reeder, Cindy Rittenhouse, Norma Siegler, Rita Coulson.

Officers: Joe Snyder, Lois Snyder, Arlene Hartenstine, John Holtzapple, Joyce Seachrist, Carol Dussinger.

The end of the football season brought the band indoors under the baton of MISS SAUDER. In March the band presented its annual spring concert with selections—such as, "Swing Balero," "North Sea Overture," "Lady of Spain," and "Noc-tourne."

Several band members gained the distinction of attending District Band. They were the following: Betty Welch, Carolyn Boothe, Don Milan, Tina Haag, Carol Dussinger, Lois Snyder, and Linda Young. Both County Band and Region III State Band were also well represented by members of Hempfield's band.

Senor Pancho Alfredo Miguel Gonzales Weaver (Barry Weaver) and ze bull.

First Row: Nancy Boose, Carol Dussinger, Mary Louise Shenk, Don Milan, Jim Kain, Judy Greider.

Second Row: Arlene Hartenstine, Gordy Groff, John Watson, Bob Hassel, Ron Denlinger, Barry Neff, Jim Ulrich, Bill Cramer, John Holtzapple.

Third Row: Susie Hackman, Miss Sauder, Rita Coulson.

The Dance Band, under the direction of Miss Sauder, is composed of a group of students chosen from the Band, according to their musical abilities. For the past two years, talented Rita Coulson has served as the vocalist for the group.

Throughout the year, the Dance Band is asked to perform at various functions both at Hempfield and at other schools in the county. This year the group gave excellent performances at our own Christmas Dance, Valentine Dance, and Senior Play. Also, they journeyed to Lampeter-Strasburg and Columbia where they again provided entertaining programs.

Much credit should be given to this group of students, for they tirelessly give of their time. For example, their rehearsals are held early in the morning when many of us are still sleeping blissfully.

ORCHESTRA

First Row: Patty Lerch, Joyce Nissley, Jennifer Getz, Shelby Dochterman, Betty Welch, Marry Frances Eshleman, Barbara Gard, Doris Lehman, Lynn Liddell, Carolyn Roehm, Patsy Roehm, Tina Haag, Jerry Koser, Barbara Funk, Marian Musser, Rodney Ditzler.

Second Row: Miss Cummings, Philip Koehler, Robert Toews, Anne Moore, Emily Holzinger, Jane Lerch, Mary Ann Noll, Marie Toews, Marlene Singer, Carolyn Gingrich, Lee Eshelman, Carol Eshleman, Linda Gerlach, Charles Wright, Carol Dussinger, Linda Young, Jim Clark.

Again this year the orchestra, with its outstanding student talent, has demonstrated its many capabilities. Under the able direction of Miss Zoe Cummings, the orchestra presented a fine Christmas concert, featuring both the Junior and Senior High orchestras. Some of the numbers performed were "Gesu Bambino", "Greensleeves", "Winter Sunshine", and "Adoramus Fe". The orchestra, along with the choruses, presented "A Christmas Festival," a stirring medley of Christmas favorites.

Several members of the orchestra accompanied the Messiah Community Chorus in a rendition of Handel's "Messiah". Also, a great number of orchestra members gained the added honor of being selected to participate in District Orchestra. They are as follows: Betty Welch, Doris Lehman, Barbara Gard, Jerry Koser, Carolyn Roehm, Lynn Lidell, Barbara Funk, Marianne Musser, Susie Hottenstein, Susan Haus, Carol Dussinger, Linda Young, and Tina Haag.

Under the able direction of Coach Mentzer, the Black Knights compiled a record of 4 wins and 5 losses. Hempfield's trademark for the year was the Knight's constantly moving offense; however, their inability to match this offense with an equally sound defense kept them from serious contention for the title. Spearheading Hempfield's attack was the running and passing of senior tailback Ric Horst. Dan Fisher, Emil Swift, Fred Swarr, Don Hollinger, and John Lowell provided Hempfield with a set of able receivers which, coupled with Horst's outstanding passing, resulted in the Knight's compiling 76 of 144 passes for a phenomenal 53% pass completion record. The Hempfield forward wall was bolstered with the sound play of Park Schimp, Ken Gable, Bill Musser, Pen Frey, Gary Minnig, Tom Fenstermacher, and Pete Fellman. Don Hollinger, Steve Barr, Bill Teats, and Dan Fisher provided the running and blocking which, with Ric Horst's triple threat talents, gave Hempfield a capable backfield. The Red and Black gridgers showed steady improvement from midseason on and culminated their late season drive with a pair of victories over Solanco and Warwick.

NOW YOU DON'T

OOFF!

HEY, COME ON YOU FELLAS, QUIT MESSIN' AROUND, I LOST MY RING SOMEWHERE 'AROUND HERE.

WHO'S THE WISE GUY WITH ALL THE CONFETTI?

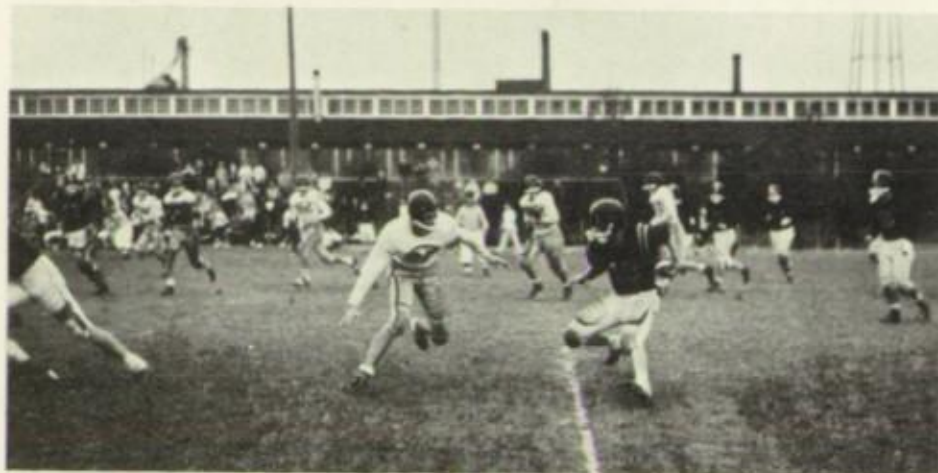

AHH, COACH, YOU DON'T REALLY WANT TO SEND ME OUT TO FIGHT AGAINST ALL 'THOSE BIG GUYS, DO YA?'

ALL RIGHT, WHO TURNED OUT ALL THE LIGHTS?

O.K. WHO'S GOT THE BALL?

LAST ONE OVER THE LINE IS A CRY BABY!

HOCKEY

Second Row: Nancy Lawrence, (manager), Jane Reeder, Joyce Seachrist, Edie Reeder, Linda Young, Nancy Boose, Sallie Robertson, Bobbie Marshall, Susie Hackman, Rosie Harnly, Louise Brubaker, (manager).

Hockey, probably the most popular girls' sport in the school, kept approximately three dozen girls very busy during September and October of this school year. Battling to a varsity record of 5, 2, and 1 and a junior varsity record of 3, 2, and 2, the girls did not win the league championship as they had hoped, but they did learn the value of teamwork and good sportsmanship. With Miss Joan Manly as coach, Charlotte Emich and Judy Markley as varsity co-captains, and Delly Sheckard and Judy Metzger as junior varsity co-captains, the girls experienced the joys and sorrows of the season — no pizza pie, or cake; those warm red sweatsuits; victory and defeat; and warm friendship among team members.

In his second season with the Hempfield Black Knights, Coach Henry produced not only the strongest contender in the league but also the only undefeated squad in the county competition. The superior ability and sportsmanship of the Varsity cagers enabled the Knights to capture the league championship by completely upsetting each opponent in the fourteen-game season. On February 28 the Knights clashed with the Solanco five, the section II champions, and thereby claimed the county title with an impressive 74 to 55 overthrow. Then on March 4, the Knights met Hamburg in a preliminary round of the class B playoffs. Although they staged an excellent combat, the Knights were unable to overpower Hamburg. The contest ended in a narrow defeat for Hempfield.

The Junior Varsity squad, with Coach Bissinger at its head, also experienced a very successful season. Since the Varsity team will lose only two of its top five starters and will gain a promising group of underclassmen, Hempfield can anticipate another outstanding ball club for the coming season.

First Row: Ben Glick, Dave Thompson, Pen Frey, Ken Kreider, Paul Swisher, Dan Fisher, Mike Mease.

Second Row: Paul Cunningham (Coach), Elvin Kirchoff, Bob Aument, Fred Fisher, John Long, Tom Koelbl, Don Hershey, Fred Kepner, Mr. Ernst (Ass't. Coach)

Third Row: Randy Rudy, Jerry Huber, Sam Ridder, Ken Zeamer, Randy Gold, Les Brubaker, Ken Malick, Ron Denlinger (Manager).

Although the record of three wins and seven losses seems unimpressive, the Hempfield wrestlers faced a difficult format of opponents. The co-captains, Dan Fisher and Mike Mease, finished the season with eight wins and two losses, and six wins and two losses, respectively. One of the more exciting meets of the season was the Penn Manor meet, where the victory eluded our team until the final two matches.

The highlight of the season is always the annual sectional tournament, in which the best wrestlers of the county participate. In this year's tournament, held at Manheim Central, Dan Fisher and Ben Glick reached the semi-finals.

With only five senior wrestlers graduating, the prospect of a winning team, under the direction of Paul Cunningham, seems a certainty.

BASEBALL

Left to Right:

First Row: Jack Ries (manager), Gordie Mummaw, Lester Neff, Richard Shope (co-captain), Richard Lowell (co-captain), Bob Eck, Barry Emich, Gary Henney.

Second Row: Mr. Hondras, Carl Ernst, John Froelich, Steve Barr, Dick Lutz, Carl Hostetter, Tim Wissler, Mike Leary, Bill Cramer, Mr. Henry.

Third Row: Clarence Witmer, Tom Wissler, Bob Harmon, Tony Arapolu, Bill Abbot, Barry Sellers, Jack Forney, Ron Rice.

Because this book goes to press before the season has been completed, only a partial record of this year's baseball team can be given. Even though the squad has lost its first four practice games, the Knights played excellent baseball in the first two league games of the season. Bob Eck pitched the first game with Donegal, in which the score was 0-0. Tim Wissler pitched the second game with Columbia, in which the score was 5-0 in Hempfield's favor. The pitching power of this year's team rests mainly with these two students.

This year's squad will have a difficult time of bettering the 7, 1, 1 record of last year, but Coach Hondras feels that if the pitching and the hitting improve, the team has an excellent opportunity of recapturing first place honors.

TRACK

First Row: James Bitzer, Chester Landis, Glen Devonshire, Ric Horst, Dan Fisher, Dave Kauffman, Donald Miller, Douglas Rudisill, Jim Kauffman, Robert Siegel, Earl Gestewitz, Gary Rineer.

Supervised by Coach MacDonough, the Hempfield track and field team was spotlighted in its second year of varsity competition. The squad competed in a number of track meets in which the events were classified into three categories: throwing events (javelin, discus, and shot), jumping events (broad jump, high jump, and pole vault), and running events (100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, 440 yard sprint, 880 or $\frac{1}{2}$ mile, mile, and relay).

The response to this relatively new sport at Hempfield has been good, with Hempfield qualifying as a strong contender in the county competition.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' TENNIS TEAMS

Charlotte Emich

Dave Thompson and Jim Clark

Hempfield's tennis teams, composed of eight girls and nine boys, entered league competition for the fifth straight year. As this goes to press, the girls' and boys' tennis squads, under the capable direction of Miss Manly and Mr. Amway respectively, have no records for this season; however, it is likely that both teams will be tough competition, for they have strength in their returning seniors as well as their underclassmen. The seniors, who are sure to do an excellent job, are Charlotte Emich, Dave Thompson, and Jim Clark. Among the outstanding underclassmen are Sally Robertson and Emil Swift.

First Row: Sallie Robertson, Tina Haag, Jane Reeder, Barbara Anderson, Mary Ellen Mummau, Judy Metzger, Carolyn Bare, Nancy Boose, Miss Manly.

Second Row: Gordie Groff, Dave Thompson, Mike Mease, Jim Clark, Emil Swift, Don Schadel, John Garret, La Verne Hauck, Terry Bender.

First Row: T. Wissler, D. Kachel, J. Boyer (co-captain), D. Gehman (co-captain), H. Good, H. Cooper

Second Row: J. Risser (manager), L. Gerlach, D. Bentzel, E. Irwin, G. Kachel, H. Gebhard, F. Fisher, S. Hohenstein, B. Doerr (manager).

Third Row: Mr. Hondras, T. Arapolu, K. Malik, R. Kunkle, J. Sweitzer, R. Gold, D. Fostina, D. Miller, Mr. Bissinger.

With landslide victories over most of its opponents, the junior high football team compiled four wins against two defeats. Even with this fine record, the team lost a heart-breaker to Cocalico.

Since the team has only freshmen, Coaches Christ Hondras and Donald Bissinger must instruct and develop a new team each year. This is a task which the coaches have done quite well. The best of the junior high players are then integrated into the varsity squad the succeeding year; therefore, the junior high squad provides the varsity squad with many of its finest players.

T. Fiedler, B. Harry, J. A. Stoner, W. Horst, C. Smith, S. Smith.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

First Row: G. Bender, P. Kise, M. Bielo, L. Reynolds, J. Bender, L. Smith, T. Wissler, B. Shenk.

Second Row: Mr. Nohrenberg, K. Martin, D. Miller, G. Kachel, J. Epps, H. Good, B. Sellers, Mr. Fasnacht.

The Junior High basketball squad, under the capable supervision of Coach Fasnacht, secured a very impressive record of eleven wins and one loss to capture the co-championship of the county Junior High league. The only loss was suffered to Donegal in the second half of the season, although the Indians had previously been defeated by Hempfield. Both teams, therefore, having a tied record of seven wins and one loss, were designated as the league co-champions.

FINIS

We cannot measure our High School experiences in years, or months, or days. . .
 or time-at-all.
 Some days as full as months,
 Some months as fast gone by as minutes. . . or seconds. . .
 Ended — yet, e'er remembered
 Life moments. . .
 For us, a marker on the Course to Maturity
 Has passed. . .
 Next destination — the infinity of Mind, Talent, Ambition. . .
 Yet, in the midst of this rush strain fight of Life. . .
 Sometime, we all shall pause,
 remembering Hempfield High.

Future years at
 Then after your at college keep getting those good marks
 you like your teachers
 I hope you'll meet your some one instead of being an old maid!
